

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF
WEST BRADFORD, CHESTER COUNTY,
PENNSYLVANIA, DEFINING DISTURBING
THE PEACE WITHIN THE TOWNSHIP
LIMITS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WEST
BRADFORD AND PROVIDING PENALTIES
FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF III

The Township Supervisors of the Township of West Bradford do enact and ordain:

Section 1. Any person or persons who shall make or participate in the making of any riot, noise, disturbance or disorderly assembly in any street, house or place within the township limits of the Township of West Bradford, or who shall appear or be on any public street, place, or alley under the influence of intoxicating liquors, or who shall engage in the use of any profane or indecent language on any public street, place or alley within the township limits of the Township of West Bradford shall be guilty of disturbing the peace within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 2. Any person or persons to the number of three or more, who shall assemble in any public street, place or alley within the township limits of the Township of West Bradford and engage in loud, boisterous or unseemly language, or who shall refuse to disperse themselves immediately after having been called upon to do so by any police officer of the township shall likewise be deemed guilty of disturbing the peace within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 3. Any person or persons who shall solicit for immoral purposes in any public street, place or alley, or who shall engage or be engaged in prostitution or who shall be guilty of lewdness or who shall willfully or improperly expose his or her person in any public place shall be guilty of disturbing the peace within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 4. If any person or persons shall post any written or printed handbills of an indecent or immoral character on any fence, building, tree or other place, in any of the streets or alleys of the said township, or shall paint, write or draw or in any other manner make any writing, drawing of figures of like indecent or immoral character with paint, chalk or other substance on any fence, building, tree or other place as above so as to cause the same to have an indecent or immoral character or appearance, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of disturbing the peace within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 5. Any person or persons who shall throw or in any manner project any stone, club or other missile, refuse or rubbish in or upon any street or public alley of said township, or any person who, without the consent of the owner thereof, shall throw or project any object on the privately owned property of any owner of real estate in said township shall be deemed guilty of disturbing the peace within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 6. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, upon summary conviction before any magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall be sentenced to pay a fine to the use of the township of not more than Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars and costs, and in default thereof shall undergo imprisonment in the Chester County Farms Prison for not more than thirty days (30).

Section 7. This ordinance shall become effective five (5) days after its adoption.
